a Awake, My Pretty Dreamer
THE APOLLO CLUB

Wilh. Gericke

Awake, my pretty dreamer, thou, awake!
The endless night is past, and now awake!
All pain and stress, they too have gone.
Thy lover comes with rosy dawn.
Awake, my pretty dreamer, thou, awake!
The lark is his true messenger, awake!
The brook a fellow passenger, awake!
Whatever has a voice it sings,
Thro' every window pane it rings,
Awake, awake, my pretty dreamer, thou, awake!
Into thy room, thy heart, it goes, awake!
The earth with sunshine overflows, awake!
To spring and love the senses bow,
Awake, my pretty dreamer, thou, awake!

b Serenade
THE APOLLO CLUB

E. Köllner

Sweet as blossoms' dreams are in springtime bright,
Be thine, my fair one, be thine to-night.
Dark are earth and sky above,
But all the brighter is my love;
Brighter than all the stars could be.
Dream thou, oh fair one,
Dream thou of me!
Mild as now the moonlight thro' clouds doth beam,
So may my image weave thro' thy dream.
Earth and sky are blended quite,
As dream and life in one unite;
So shall our lives united be.
Soft as fragrance, sweet thro' the night is shed,
So angels hover about thy head.
Slumber while they vigil keep;
Sweet thy slumber be and deep,
Until daylight gently doth shine on thee!

(From "Midsummer Night's Dream.")

THE APOLLO CLUB

We're the queen's true warders! O'er these lovely borders
We will watch far and near. Let none venture here,
Our estate encroaching. We'll have no more poaching!
It is death if you dare, marauder beware!
Death to marauders! Ye poachers beware!
We'll watch, yes watch, far and near. Yes, we'll watch far and near.

Yes, watching by night and day, let none venture here.
We'll watch with ardent care. Marauder, now beware!
O'r these lovely borders roaming; we will watch with care,
Guarding them ev'rywhere! Death to marauders!
Ye poachers beware! Yes, we're watching thee everywhere.
Then come, we'll watch o'er all with care.
Hares timidly hiding, does rapidly gliding,
Hares so swiftly hiding, does so swiftly gliding,
Now ye need not fear, only friends are near.
And ye stags so peerless, ye may run now and be fearless.
Peaceful all may sleep, for faithful watch we'll keep.
And ye stags peerless may run and be fearless,
And all may rest peacefully, for we watch over thee.
Now run happy and free, for we watch over thee.
Be happy and free, for we watch over thee.
Ye need not fear, for friends are near.
Then course the sward, for we keep ward.
'Tis death to marauders! Poacher, beware!

Good Night

Dudley Buck

THE APOLLO CLUB

Now good night! Now good night!
Lo! the stars above so bright whisper to the silent night.
Weary eyes in slumber closing, silence o'er the earth reposing,

For His watchful eye doth ever wake thro' the night,
God's watchful eye doth ever wake thro' the night.
Ah! then good, good night. Ah! then good night!

Slumber sweet! Slumber sweet!
Be thy joy in dreams complete, angel forms thy vision greet!
If with love's own grief thou languish, thou shalt find relief from anguish.
