PART I

I

Drinking Song Gilchrist

THE APOLLO CLUB

Fill the bumper fair !
Every drop we sprinkle, smooths away a wrinkle
O'er the brow of care.
Wit's electric flame ne'er so swiftly passes,
As when thro' the frame it shouts from burning glasses.
Fill, then fill the bumper fair.
Would'st thou know what first made our souls inherit
This ennobling thirst for wine's celestial spirit ?
It chanc'd upon that day when, as bards inform us,
Prometheus stole away the living fire that warm'd us.
The careless youth, when up to glory's mount aspiring,
Took nor urn nor cup to hide the pilfered fire in ;
But oh the joy, when thro' the halls of heaven straying,
Among the stars he found a bowl of Bacchus laying,
Some drops were in that bowl, remains of last night's pleasure,
With which the sparks of soul mix'd the burning treasure.
Hence the goblet's show'r hath such charms to win us,
Hence its mighty pow'r o'er that flame within us.

a Bonnie Ann

MacDowell

THE APOLLO CLUB

Ye gallants bright, I rede ye right,
Beware of bonnie Ann ;
Her comely face, sae fu' o' grace,
Your hearts she will trepan.

Her een sae bright, like stars by night,
Her skin is like the swan,
Sae jimply laced her genty waist,
That sweetly ye might span.

Youth, grace and love attendant move,
And pleasure leads the van ;
In a' their charms and conq'ring arms
They wait on bonnie Ann.

The captive bands may chain the hands,
But love enslaves the man.
Ye gallants braw, I rede ye a',
Beware o' bonnie Ann.

b The Night Has a Thousand Eyes

Nevin

WITH 'CELLO OBLIGATO BY MR. P. G. ANTON

The night has a thousand eyes, and the day but one ;
Yet the light of a whole world dies with the setting sun.
The mind has a thousand eyes, and the heart but one ;
Yet the light of a whole life dies when love is done.

IV

Soprano Solo

The Crusaders

MacDowell

THE APOLLO CLUB

Sword, bright sword, scimiter blade of curved steel,
Thou 'fore the cross shalt fail.
Woe to ye sinister horsemen of the east,
Bend ere our faith prevail.
O thou desert's burning strand,
Flaming crescent's arid land,
Thou art but a grain of sand
In the hollow of God's hand.
Thou shalt fail, scimiter blade of curved steel.
Woe, sinister horsemen, woe to ye.
God with us. God with us.
Far o'er the sea. Far o'er the sea.
In meadows green sing lark and the robin sing at eve.
Ah, thou bonny land, hard wert thou to leave.
Far o'er the sea, where Britain's white cliffs gleam,
Sing the lark and the robin in cool meadows green.
Sweetbriar and thorn hear lover's vows at eve.
Ah, thou bonny England, hard wert thou to leave,
Far o'er the sea.
Onward still, though the heart be burned to dust,
On toward the holy grave.
Woe to ye, Saracen pagans of the east.
Bend, bend your souls to save.
O thou desert's burning strand,
Flaming crescent's arid land,
Thou art but a grain of sand
In the hollow of God's hand.
Onward still, though the heart be burned to dust.
Onward to the grave, the holy grave.
God with us. God with us.

Sweet and Low Barnby

THE APOLLO CLUB

Sweet and low, sweet and low, wind of the western sea.

Low, low, breathe and blow, wind of the western sea.

Over the rolling waters go,

Come from the dying moon and blow,

Blow him again to me ;

While my little one, while my pretty one, sleeps.

Sleep and rest, sleep and rest, father will come to thee soon ;

Rest, rest on mother's breast, father will come to thee soon.

Father will come to his babe in the nest,

Silver sails all out of the west,

Under the silver moon.

Sleep, my little one, sleep, my pretty one, sleep.
