

The Exposition Orchestra gave a symphony concert in Festival Hall last Friday afternoon. A feature of the programme was the playing of Leo Schultz of New York City, a violoncellist. Alfred Ernst is the conductor of the orchestra, which was supplemented by the great concert organ, Charles Galloway officiating.