Sailor's Song

Mosenthal

THE APOLLO CLUB

Give me a fresh'ning breeze ahead,
While swift the broad prow dips;
While far and wide the foam is spread,
And the salt is on our lips.
Like winged steeds the billows leap,
There white manes dashed with brine;
Hurrah! There's nothing like the deep,
Where'er the sun may shine.

Where'er the sun may shine, my boys,
There's nothing like the sea;
The spirit never soars so high,
The heart ne'er bounds so free,
As when the briny billows bear
With giant arms the ship:
I seem e'en now to taste the air
Of freedom on my lips!

Of freedom on my lip, my boys,
The dash, the foam, the spray;
The Chorus of the elements,
Rough sounding on their way;
The laughing surges on our lee,
Careering in their mirth:
Hurrah! one hour upon the sea
Is worth a year on earth.

For Tenor—“Salve Dimora,” Romanze from “Faust” Gounod

- (a) Bonnie Katrine Franz von Holstein
(b) Way-faring Men Hugo Jungst

THE APOLLO CLUB

At twilight I await here
For thee little Katrine;
My good steed shall bear thee
To border lands green.
Far away with me,
O light o' my 'een,
Thou little Katrine,
Thou little Katrine.

O, fear not thy father,
As onward we ride,
What care I for thy kinsmen,
Their might and their pride.
Come to my side, O, my bonnie bride,
And come in Kirtle,
In light o' the moon,
And busk thee fu' bravely
Or come without shoon,
My Bonnie Katrine,
O, come to me soon.

Come along! we'll dance awhile to-night, boys
Sing a song! it makes the heart so light, boys!
So to-night, to-morrow so again,
We shall be gay the live-long day:
Way-faring men, way-faring men.

Fie on wealth, that leaves a man in sorrow!
Give us health, for money we can borrow!
Ha ha ha! we're never sorry then!
Tho' we are poor, we've fun galore:
Way-faring men, way-faring men.

So we say that care, and toil are folly,
Come what may, we always will be jolly,
Rain or shine, no matter where or when,
Singing a song we'll tramp along:
Way-faring men, way-faring men.

For Tenor—Aria from “L’Africaine” Meyerbeer
SIGNOR RUSSO

Carmena H. Lane Wilson

THE APOLLO CLUB

MR. E. PRANG STAMM, Accompanist

Dance and song make glad the night.
Hark the castanets are sounding light.

Come ah! ah! come to me.

Love, I watch the scene so bright—

Ah! now rings a voice I know from every voice apart,
Through the orange grove she hastens,

She is coming, oh, my heart,

Ah! now rings a voice I know from every voice apart,
Through the orange grove she hastens,

She is coming, oh, my heart.

Ah! 'mid the throng, many are fair,
Bright flow'rets twine in raven hair,

La, la. La, la.

Dark eyes sparkle and gleam,
Soft lips breathe tender sighs,
Shall I bravest seem in her eyes?

Soft lips breathe tender sighs,
Dark eyes sparkle and gleam,
Soft lips breathe tender sighs,
Shall I bravest seem in her eyes?

Hark now rings the music,
While the silver moon-beams shine,
In the dance, love and forever I am thine, only thine, yes,
Hark now rings the music,
While the silver moon-beams shine,
In the dance, love and forever I am thine, only thine,
I am thine, ah! thine!

Serenade G. W. Chadwick

THE APOLLO CLUB

Softly the moonlight o'er the world is creeping,
Slowly the shadows deepen in their fall.
Folding the earth in peace, while thou art sleeping,
Thou my beloved, my angel, my all,
Thou my beloved, my angel, my all.

Rest thou from danger, peace, her vigil keeping,
Lulled by the strain of this my song of love.
Gently the night thine eyes in slumber steeping
Guard thee in dreaming the angels above.
Gently the night thine eyes in slumber steeping
Guard thee in dreaming the angels above,
Thou my beloved, my angel, my all.
