February 7, 1912

Dear Mr. Pomeroy:

I am really sorry to say that it will not be at all convenient for me to meet with the other members of the Committee on any of the dates you have indicated.

There is a possibility of my arranging matters for February 28, but I am not sure.

Now, let me make a suggestion:

Get the Committee together on either of the three dates — Feb. 14, Feb. 21, Feb. 28 — and you act as my proxy. I will most heartily concur in any selection you may make.

Cordially,
Charles Galloway
