PART ONE

With Courage and Faith - - Meyerbeer-Silver

At the Piano - Mr. Galloway

THE APOLLO CLUB

I

WITH COURAGE AND FAITH

Onward, onward, fight is before you,
E'en at the moment when dark clouds lowering
Seem to break o'er you,
Onward ever, Truth will be shining,
Thro' all conflicts ever will lead the way.
Forward then in bold procession,
We like foemen meet oppression,
Battling strong for right's possession,
Forward, forward, forward the battle cry.

But, Oh! midst the conflict and strife,
'Neath the tossing of waves
And the surf's weary moan,
How surely and calmly the tide
Goes the way of its course,
And cometh again to its own.

Onward, onward, truth will be shining,
Thro' all conflicts, ever will lead the way.
Forward then in bold procession,
We like foemen meet oppression,
Battling strong for right's possession.
Forward, forward, forward the battle cry.

Then cometh a day when we meet
Truth with truth, while is conquered
And vanquished all wrong.
Our faith will be glad and complete,
And our hearts will glow with triumph song.
Then cry onward, Oh, ye warriors,
Each step forward, win the day.
Then cometh a day when we meet
Truth with truth, while is conquered
And vanquished all wrong.

Our faith will be glad and complete,
And our hearts will glow with triumph song,
There is many a call ere the strife be won,
Ere the strife be won.
Many wrongs to right, till the fight is done.
There is many a call ere the strife be won,
Many wrongs to right, till the fight is done,
the fight is done.

Then forward all,
A glorious dawn will be breaking,
Hearts strong and true, the order old forsaking,
Peace and happiness be making
As our way in honor taking,
We would join the wondrous fight,
For enthronement of the right.
We would join the wondrous fight
For enthronement of the right.
Onward, onward all!

(b) Dance of the Gnomes - - E. A. McDowell

THE APOLLO CLUB

THE LINDEN TREE

I know in the vale a linden tree,
And in its shade my love with me
Pass'd hours of joy and gladness.
But now the tree stands cold and bare,
No sweetheart there, my love to share;
My heart is filled with sadness,
My heart is filled with sadness.

In yonder house upon the hill
My love passed to and fro—, until
She left her home forever.
Now storm and high winds hold their sway,
While my dear love dwells far away
And I shall see her never,
And I shall see her never.

Could I but as the silver star
Look down upon my love so far,
My heart would fill with gladness.
I lov'd my love with all my heart,
But that from her I had to part,
Still fills my heart with sadness,
Still fills my heart with sadness.

DANCE OF THE GNOMES

Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha,
From the shadow, through the moonlight,
In the forest's deepest glades
Dainty dances often have we,
In the midnight's balmy shades.
From the shadow, through the moonlight,
In the forest's deepest glades,
In the midnight's balmy shades.

(Humming.)

Flower fairies, proud frail mockers,
Call us ugly hairy imps,
Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha,
Could we snare ye in our circle. Ha!
Could we catch ye with our magic,
Could we catch ye with our magic,
Then, gay flaunters, would we teach ye
How all true love conquers kind,
Our long beards and "ugly" noddles
Would be lovely to your mind,
Would be lovely to your mind.
Ha! laugh on, ye willful hussies,
Play your pranks on other guys,
Play your pranks on other guys,

(Humming.)

While the moon-beams light our gambols
Can we live without your eyes.
Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha,
Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha,
Without your eyes.
Mockers call us ugly, ugly, ugly,
Ugly, ugly, ugly, ugly, hairy imps!

"Reveries" - - - - - A. M. Storch

THE APOLLO CLUB

"REVERIES"

Far above the stars are beaming
Wondrous in their diamond light,
On the arch of heaven sparkling
Through the darkness of the night,
Through the darkness of the night,
All around is wrapped in slumber,
Silence dwells o'er field and grove,
Save the nightingale's soft warble,
Tender tones, tender tones.
Save the nightingale's soft warble,
Tender tones, in tender tones of peace and love.

Thro' the trees the breeze is wafted
Softly like a spirit sigh,
'Tis as though the dream-god whispered
Thro' the shad'wy woodland nigh,
Thro' the shad'wy woodland nigh.
And I gaze in admiration
At the grandeur of the sight,
As I were asleep enraptured,
Dreaming there, dreaming there;
As I were asleep enraptured,
Dreaming there, and dreaming there in silent night.

THE APOLLO CLUB

MARGARITA

'Neath the waves the sun is going,
With bright hues the sky is glowing;
Twilight o'er the earth is stealing,
Far off evening bells are pealing;
Then I think of thee, Margarita.

On a rocky crag I'm lying,
Stranger in a strange land, sighing;
Round my feet the waves are dancing,
Through my soul float dreams entrancing;
Then I think of thee, Margarita.
