On the Sea - - - - - Dudley Buck

THE APOLLO CLUB

---

I

ON THE SEA.

When the cloud-wrack is torn
By the gust, and upborne
By winds in their might,
In the storm, in the night
The billows have power;
Despite the dread hour,
Ah then, my dearest, think I of thee,
In the storm, in the night,
On the sea.

When no star we descry
Thro' the mist, yet so nigh,
The waves phantom-light
In the storm, in the night,
Flashes up thro' the gloom;
Though near be our doom,
Still then, my dearest, think I of thee,
In the storm, in the night,
On the sea.

Father omnipotent, mighty to save!
Thou art the compass, which guides the lone bark;
Ruler, subduer of wind and of wave,
Thou art the beacon which gleams thro' the dark.
Then sailor, as on thro' the darkness thou steerest,
Thy safety, and hers who to thee is the dearest,
Doth rest in His keeping—He'll guide to the shore,
Who ruleth and reigneth thy God evermore,
In the storm, in the night,
On the sea.

- (a) The Cossack - - - - S. Moniuszko
(b) Vale Carissima - - - - F. Brueschweiler

THE APOLLO CLUB

THE COSSACK.

In the moonlight, near the forest, where the river's sighing,
Moaning lies a brave young trooper, on the green sward dying.

"Death is mowing in this meadow, hark! his scythe's swift sighing,
Mother, hear me, ere the reaper spies out where I'm lying."

"Sing the songs I lov'd in childhood, cease thy bitter mourning,
Soft to sleep thy voice will lull me, as the day is dawning,
No black cowl shall mar my journey towards eternal morning, Cossacks brave, shall chant the death song as the day is dawning,
Cossacks brave, shall chant the death song, see, the day is dawning."

VALE CARISSIMA.

On yonder lofty mountain, a thousand times I stand,
Look up to the shining heavens, and down on the smiling land.

Vale! Vale! Vale Carissima!

In rain and storm and tempest, I tarry beneath the tree.
But closed remaineth yon portal; 'tis all but a vision to me.

Vale! Vale! Vale Carissima!

High over yonder mountain, there riseth a rainbow gay,
But she from home hath departed,
My sweetheart from home hath departed, and wandered far away.

Vale! Vale! Vale Carissima!

Credo - - - - - G. W. Chadwick

---

CREDO.

For the sole edification
Of this decent congregation
Goodly people by your grant
I will sing a holy chant,
If the ditty sound but oddly
'Twas a father wise and godly
Sang it so long ago.
Then sing, then sing, as Martin Luther sang,
As Doctor Martin Luther sang,
Who loves not wine, woman and song,
He is a fool his whole life long.

He by custom patriarchal
Loved to see the beaker sparkle,
And he thought the wine improved,
Tasted by the lips he loved.
Friends, I wish this custom pious,
Duly were observed by us,
To combine love, and song, and wine,
And sing as Martin Luther sang,
Who loves not wine, woman and song,
He is a fool his whole life long.

Who refuses this our credo
And who will not sing as we do,
Were he holy as John Knox
I'd pronounce him Heterodox,
And from out the congregation
With a solemn commination
We banish quick the heretic
Who will not sing as Luther sang,
As Doctor Martin Luther sang,
Who loves not wine, woman and song,
He is a fool his whole life long.

Home, Sweet Home - - - - Dudley Buck

THE APOLLO CLUB

---

HOME, SWEET HOME.

Mid pleasures and palaces, tho' we may roam,
Be it ever so humble there's no place like home.
A charm from the skies seems to hallow it there,
Which ne'er in the world can be met with elsewhere.
Ah, home, sweet home, there is no place like home.

An exile from home, splendor dazzles in vain,
O, give me my lonely thatched cottage again.
The birds gaily singing, that came at my call,
Give me back all that peace of mind, dearer than all.
Ah, home, sweet home, there is no place like home.
