O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee, and He will not let thee fall forever. Look unto Him and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth, for though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow, though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing, I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and a horrible dread hath overwhelmed me. Save me, O God, for the waters are come even unto my soul. As one whom his mother comforteth, so will He comfort you, and ye shall be comforted in Zion.

The flowers on the Altar today are furnished by St. Peter's Guild.

Announcements

The subject of the lecture at the 4:30 service this afternoon will be "Confucianism and Its Relation to Christianity." The general interest in these Sunday afternoon lectures is a source of great gratification to the Rector, and it is hoped that the members of this congregation will not lose the opportunity of hearing the rest of the series.

The Rector wishes again to remind the congregation that each Tuesday afternoon is set apart for the children of the Parish. Every child of the Sunday School is most cordially invited, and the parents and children outside this parish will be most heartily welcomed to these services.

St. Peter's Guild will meet as usual on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The ladies are planning for a Sale to be held shortly after Easter and as a great deal of work is to be done, a prompt and full attendance is desired.

During Lent the members of St. Mary's Guild are making the 10 o'clock service the occasion for a weekly Corporate Communion. The attendance has been very large and the spiritual uplift from the service has been felt by everyone. The regular service will be held at 10 o'clock next Thursday morning, to which, of course, everyone is invited.

The adult confirmation class meets every Friday night at 8 o'clock, and, as the time is growing short (there being only five weeks left until the Bishop's visitation), the Rector earnestly hopes that everyone who is even interested in confirmation will give him the opportunity of discussing the matter, either before or after any service. It is most important to attend the confirmation lectures, as the Church in all Her relations is thoroughly discussed and presented to the class.

The children's confirmation class is held every Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the Rector's office. All of the children must know their Catechism, and the Rector earnestly requests the parents to co-operate with him in this important matter.

Regular services next Sunday as usual. The subject of the afternoon service will be "The Religion of Zoroaster."
