PART ONE

Grim Winter, So Bold - - - - J. H. Brewer
THE APOLLO CLUB
At the Piano, Mr. Charles Galloway

I

GRIM WINTER, SO BOLD

I

Grim Winter, so bold, brings the snow and cold,
And the Northwind, boisterously blowing,
Jack Frost's cruel wand falls on sea and land
Over all an icy shroud throwing.
Jack Frost's cruel wand falls on sea and land
Over all an icy shroud, over all an icy shroud throwing,
a shroud throwing.

II

The sleeping flowers lie dreaming, of summer days long
since gone;
The poplars, the birches, the maple branches
Hang bare, and gaunt and lorn;
The blackbird's old nest is forsaken
The ivy is dead on the wall;
Now hushed is the voice of the river
And the plashing waterfall.
The sleeping flowers lie dreaming, lie a dreaming,
Of summer days, summer days, long since gone.

III

But the Southwind it will blow, and banish the snow
And the cold of the winter distressing,
The warm sun will shine, and fair Spring benign
Will waken the earth, will waken the earth,
The earth with her blessing.

THE APOLLO CLUB

THE LAMP IN THE WEST

Venus has (hath) lit her silver lamp,
Low in the purple west,
Breathing a soft and mellow light
Upon the sea's full breast,
It is the hour when velvet winds
Tremble the alder's crest, Tremble the alder's crest.
Far out, far out the restless bar,
Starts from a troubled sleep
When roaming thro' the narrow straits,
The meeting waters leap;
But still that shining pathway leads,
Across the lonely deep, Across the lonely deep.
When I sail out the narrow straits
Where unknown dangers be,
And cross the troubled moaning bar,
To the mysterious sea,
Dear God, wilt Thou not set a lamp,
Low in the west for me, Low in the west for me.

AH, ONCE I DREAMED!

Ah, once I dreamed a blissful dream,
I loved and was beloved again;
We walked beside the forest stream
When Springtime smiled on hill and plain.
The brook flowed on so soft and clear,
The roses bloomed, and sweet and low,
Like fairy voices to the ear
Came echoes from the vale below.
The dream came true, that blissful dream,
I loved and was beloved again;
We walked beside the forest stream,
When Springtime smiled on hill and plain.
The stream flowed on so soft and clear
Faint voices echoed from below,
I clasped thee close and held thee, dear,
As if I could not let thee go.
O path beside the forest stream
Thou'rt dear to all eternity!
Then was reality a dream, a dream,
The dream, the dream, a sweet reality, reality.

INTERMISSION OF TEN MINUTES

The beginning of Part Second will be indicated in the Foyer

Drake's Drum - - - - - S. Coleridge Taylor

THE APOLLO CLUB

At the Piano, Mr. Charles Galloway

DRAKE'S DRUM

Drake he's in his hammock an' a thousand mile away,
Captain, art thou sleepin' there below?

Slung atween the round shot in Nombre Dios Bay
An' dreamin' of the home he used to know,
Yonder looms the mainland and yonder lie the ships
Wi' sailor lads a dancin' heel an' toe, heel an' toe,
An' the shorelights flashin', an' the night tide dashin'
He sees it all so plainly as he saw it long ago!

Drake he was a Englishman an' ruled the English seas,
Captain, art thou sleepin' there below?
Rovin' tho' his death fell, he went wi' heart at ease
An' dreamin' of the home he used to know,
Take my drum to England, hang it by the shore,
Strike it when your powder's runnin' low, runnin' low.
If the Dons sight Dover, I'll sail the wide seas over,
An' drum them up the Channel as we drumm'd them long ago.

Drake he's in his hammock till the great Armadas come,
Captain, art thou sleepin' there below?
Slung atween the round shot, list'nin' for the drum,
An' dreamin' of the home he used to know.
Call him on the deep sea, call him up the sound,
Call him when ye sail to meet the foe, meet the foe,
Where the old trade's plyin' an' the old flag flyin'
They shall find him ware an' wakin',
As they found him long ago, long ago!

Prayer of Thanksgiving - - - - - Kremser
THE APOLLO CLUB
At the Piano, Mr. Charles Galloway

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

I

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing,
He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing cease them from distressing
Sing praise to His name, He forgets not His own.

II

Beside us to guide us, Our God with us joining
Ordaining, Maintaining His Kingdom divine,
So from the beginning the fight we were winning;
Thou, Lord, was't at our side, the glory be Thine.

III

We all do extol Thee, Thou Leader in battle,
And pray that Thou still our Defender wilt be,
Let Thy Congregation escape tribulation
Thy name be ever prais'd! O Lord make us free!
