Offertory Anthem—"Behold, God Is Great".....Naylor

Behold, God is great, and we know Him not, the number of His years is unsearchable. The Lord of Hosts, Him shall we sanctify, and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread. O God, when Thou wentest forth before Thy people, when Thou didst march through the wilderness, the earth trembled, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God, the God of Israel. Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify Thy Name, for Thou only art holy, righteous and true are Thy ways, Thou King of the ages. Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth, O sing praises unto the Lord. To Him that rideth upon the heaven of heavens, which are of old; lo, He uttereth His voice, and that a mighty voice. O God, Thou art terrible out of Thy holy places, the God of Israel, He giveth strength and power unto His people. Blessed, blessed be God.

Doxology.....Old Hundredth

Recessional—Hymn No. 506.....Gauntlett

The flowers on the Altar today are a memorial furnished by Mrs. Frank Hamilton.

Announcements

The Rev. J. Courtney Jones, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Webster Groves, will be the special preacher at the 4:30 service this afternoon.

The Rector wishes to express his gratitude to all those who assisted in maintaining the regular schedule of services during his absence the last two Sundays. The kindness and consideration of the Clergy of the Diocese, as well as the members of St. Peter's Church, have been most deeply appreciated.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Diocesan Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held next Friday, May 27th, at Grace Church, Kirkwood, beginning with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a. m. Immediately after the celebration, regular reports and pledges will be in order, and after Noonday Prayers, a box luncheon will be served. The principal speaker will be Miss Bowden, of San Antonio, Texas. All the members of St. Peter's Branch are most earnestly requested to be present.

Sermon—

Offertory Anthem—“Holy Father, Cheer Our Way”..... Huhn

Holy Father, cheer our way, with Thy love's perpetual ray; grant us every closing day, light at evening time. Holy Spirit, be Thou nigh, when in mortal pains we lie, grant us as we come to die, light at evening time. Holy, blessed Trinity, darkness is not dark to Thee; those Thou keepest always see, light at evening time. Amen.

The members of St. Mary's Guild have been invited to the charming residence of Mrs. Logeman on Florissant Road, Normandy, for lunch, next Saturday, May 28th, at one o'clock. Every member is asked to notify Miss Ada Alexander, 5700 Clemens avenue, Cabany 3176W, of their acceptance.

On next Thursday night, May 26th, at 8 p. m., there will be a service at St. John's Church, 3666 Arsenal street, arranged particularly for the young men and boys in the several parishes who assist in some definite capacity at Divine service. This will include servers at the Altar, crucifers, flag bearers and also choir boys. The object of this service, as stated by the Rev. K. A. Stimpson, Rector of St. John's Church, is not only to make these young men feel that they are appreciated in the service they are rendering, but also that some of them may feel directed and called to the sacred Ministry of the Church. The Rev. Frederick S. Fleming, Rector of the Church of the Atonement, Chicago, will be the special preacher. All members of this congregation are most cordially invited to be present.
