The Comrades' Song of Hope - - Adolphe Adam

THE APOLLO CLUB

At the Piano, Mr. Charles Galloway

I

THE COMRADES' SONG OF HOPE

Hark! what strains of solemn gladness
Are heard filling the air!
Sweet as hope that dawns on sadness,
The gloom of doubt dispelling,
A joyful day foretelling,
To follow the night of despair.
Men that toil in the battle of life,
List to strains that will sweeten the strife!
The righteous Cause alone is glorious,
And wins the fight, and wins the fight.
The friends of truth shall be victorious,
For truth is might, for truth is might!
Falsehood and malice may assail you,
And hell dismay;
He that is mighty will not fail you,
He will be your stay, He will be your stay.

(Repeat first eight lines)

When the kindly country that bore you,
When broad mankind your valour needs;
When the good and great gone before you
Look down to mark your noble deeds;
For the love of fatherland and freedom,
For truth and right stand in the van,
Fling wealth and pomp to those who need them,
Be staunch and bold, and play the man,
Truth your standard, holy your cause,
Be faithful to death for your freedom and laws,
Your cause is right, and right is might;
Then play the man, and win the fight.

THE APOLLO CLUB

ONLY A PIN

Only a pin, yet it calmly lay
On the tufted floor in the light of day;
And it shone serenely, fair and bright,
Reflecting back the noonday light.

Only a boy, yet he saw that pin,
And his face assumed a fiendish grin;
He stooped for a while, with look intent,
Till he and the pin alike were bent.

Only a chair, but upon its seat
A well bent pin found safe retreat;
Nor had the keenest eye discerned
That heavenward its point was turned.

Only a man, but he chanced to drop
Upon that chair, when fizzy-bang-pop!
He leaped like a cork from out a bottle,
And opened wide his valve de throttle.

Only a yell, though an honest one,
It lacked the element of fun;
And boy, man, pin, chair,
In wild confusion mingled there.

ALLAN WATER

On the banks of Allan Water,
When the sweet springtide did fall,
Was the miller's lovely daughter,
Fairest of them all.

For his bride a soldier sought her,
And a winning tongue had he;
On the banks of Allan Water,
None so gay as she.

On the banks of Allan Water,
When brown autumn spreads its store,
There I saw the miller's daughter,
But she smiled no more,
For the summer grief had brought her,
And a soldier false was he.
On the banks of Allan Water,
None so sad as she.

On the banks of Allan Water,
When the wintry snow fell fast,
Still was seen the miller's daughter;
Chilling blew the blast.
But the miller's lovely daughter
Both from cold and care was free;
On the banks of Allan Water,
There a Corse lay she.

INTERMISSION OF TEN MINUTES—The beginning of Part Second will be indicated in the Foyer by a brief extinction of the electric light.

THE APOLLO CLUB

BUGLE SONG

The splendor falls on castle walls,
And snowy summits old in story;
The long light shakes across the lakes
And the wild cataract leaps in glory.
Blow, bugle, blow—set the wild echoes flying,
Blow, bugle; answer, echoes, dying, dying, dying.

O hark, O hear, how thin and clear,
And thinner, clearer, farther going!
O sweet and far, from cliff and scar,
The horns of Elfland faintly blowing!
Blow, blow, let us hear the purple glens replying;
Blow, bugle; answer, echoes, dying, dying, dying.

O love, they die, they die in yon rich sky;
They faint on hill or field or river;
Our echoes roll from soul to soul
And grow forever and forever,
And grow forever and forever.
Blow, bugle; answer, echoes, dying, dying, dying.

A Meditation - - - - - Bruno Huhn

THE APOLLO CLUB

A MEDITATION

There's heav'n above, and night by night,
I look right thro' its roof;
No suns and moons, tho' e'er so bright,
Avail to stop me;
Splendor proof, I keep the broods of stars aloof,
For I intend to get to God.
For 'tis to God I speed so fast,
For in God's breast, my own abode,
Those shoals of dazzling glory pass'd,
I lay my spirit down at last.
I lie where I have always lain,
God smiles, as He has always smiled;
Ere suns and moons could wax and wane,
Ere stars were thunder girt, or piled
The heav'ns, God thought on me, His child.
