Benedicite .....	Baldwin
Benedictus (chant) .....	Heathcote
Hymn—No. 44 .....	Crasselius
Sermon—The Rector.
Offertory Anthem—“Comfort ye, my people”.....	Federlein

Comfort ye, my people, speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, saith your God. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness. Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill made low, and the crooked shall be made straight and the rough places plain. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Doxology .....	Old Hundredth
Recessional—Hymn No. 46.....	Hirst
Postlude—Grand Chorus in D.....	Guilmant

The flowers on the Altar today are furnished by Mrs. F. O. Watts.

Offertory Anthem—“The Lord came from Sinai”.....	West

The Lord came from Sinai and rose up from Seir unto them; He shineth forth from Mount Paran, and He came with ten thousands of saints; from His right hand went a fiery law for them. Yea He loved the people, all His saints are in thy hand, and they sat down at thy feet, everyone shall receive of thy words.

Doxology .....	Old Hundredth
Recessional—Hymn No. 46.....	Hirst
Postlude—Fugue in G.....	Bach

This is the first Sunday in Advent, New Year’s Day in the Church of God. It is fitting, therefore, that all of us examine ourselves and take a real appraisalment of our share in the Church’s life and work last year and at the same time, give earnest thought and consideration of what God expects us to do specifically for the extension of His Kingdom in this present year. This Season means the coming of Christ to judgment. Is any one of us able to say, “I have done the best, I have given the best, I have been the best that I could”?
