Offertory Anthem—"The great day of the Lord is near"..Lucien G. Chaffin

The great day of the Lord is near, that day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness. A day for the trumpet, a day of alarm against the fenced cities and against the high towers.

Gather yourselves together, O nation not desired; before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the Lord come upon you.

Seek ye the Lord, all ye meek of the earth which have wrought His judgment. Seek righteousness, seek meekness; it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger, seek ye the Lord.

DoxologyOld Hundredth
Hymn No. 227, in place of Gloria in Excelsis.....Uglo
Organ Postlude—Elegiac March.....Guilmant

The flowers on the Altar today are furnished by Mrs. E. C. Simmons.

The regular monthly musical service will be held this afternoon at 4:30. The Choir will render the beautiful Advent Cantata, "Blessed are they who watch," by Dr. Hugh Blair. From a musical point of view, this is one of the most beautiful compositions ever rendered by St. Peter's Choir, and this coupled with the devotional aspect of the work will make it doubly acceptable to all who come. It is hoped that a large congregation will be present.

The Rector will deliver the address at the Elks' Annual Memorial Service, to be held this afternoon at Christ Church Cathedral at 3 o'clock.

On Tuesday evening, St. Peter's Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew had a most interesting meeting, at which time officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mr. Ewing Glasgow was elected Director, Mr. W. S. Mason, Vice-Director, Mr. R. L. Carpenter was re-elected Secretary, and Mr. R. C. Beckett was elected Treasurer. It was with a feeling of universal regret that the Brotherhood accepted Mr. Powe's resignation as Director. Mr. Powe has done most excellent work not only in the Senior Chapter, but also in organizing the Junior Chapter in St. Peter's Parish, and everyone feels that his splendid leadership has contributed greatly to the splendid success of our Chapter.

Evening Service Music.

Processional—Hymn No. 45.....Ancient Plain Song

Sonata in A minor (Two Movements).....Felix Borowski

- I. Allegro ma non troppo.
- II. Andante, moderato Maestoso Andante.

Blessed are they who watch.....Hugh Blair

Blessed are they, whom the Lord when He cometh shall find watching, they shall go into Life Eternal and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them and shall be their God.

Solo (Soprano) "Sorrow not for those that sleep."

Sorrow not for those that sleep, even as others which have no hope. If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so they also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him.

Chorus—"Behold the hour cometh."

Behold the hour cometh when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God and they that hear shall live. For the Lord Himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout with the voice of the Archangel and the trump of God. Awake and sing, yet that sleep in the dust. Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise; and the earth shall cast out the dead.

Chorus—"The world passeth away."

The world passeth away and the lust thereof, but he that doeth the will of the Lord, abideth forever.

Solo (Soprano), "I will give unto Him."

I will give unto him that is athirst, of the fountain of the water of Life freely; he that overcometh shall inherit all things; I will be his God, and he shall be My son.

Chorus—"Now is come salvation."

Now is come Salvation and strength and the Kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ.

Chorus—"Lo! This is our God."

Lo! this is our God, we have waited for Him, He will save us.

Recessional—Hymn No. 43.....Greenland

Postlude—Fugue in G minor.....Bach

On Wednesday morning a Corporate Communion Service for the members of the Brotherhood throughout the city was held in St. Peter's Church at 7:30. There was a splendid attendance and almost everyone present remained for breakfast, which was served in the Parish House immediately after the service.
