Offertory Anthem—"To whom then will ye liken God?" Parker

To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto Him? Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told ye from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

It is He that sitteth upon the circle of the earth; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in: That bringeth the princes to nothing; He maketh the judges of the earth as vanity. To whom then will ye liken Me? saith the Holy One, to whom?

Hast thou not known? Hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might He increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall, but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint.

Have ye not known? have ye not heard, that the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? Praise Him, and magnify His holy Name for ever. Amen.

There will be the regular midnight celebration of the Holy Communion on Christmas Eve. At 11 o'clock Saturday night, the Choir will sing the beautiful Christmas Cantata, "The Christ Child," by Hawley. As Christmas falls on Sunday this year, it will be necessary for the Choir to retire immediately after the Adeste Fideles, as there will be a regular service on Christmas morning at 11 o'clock. There will also be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. Christmas Day.

The usual Sunday afternoon service at 4:30 will be omitted on Christmas Day.

The members of this congregation are invited to attend the "Festival of Lights" which will be held in Epiphany Chapel this evening at 7:30 o'clock. This is a beautiful service of lights and Christmas carols and it will be a great pleasure and profit to all who attend.

Wednesday, December 21, being St. Thomas' Day, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a. m.
