BACCHANALIAN CHORUS

This bottle's the sun of our table;
His beams are rosy wine;
We, planets that are not able
Without his help to shine.
Let mirth and glee abound,
You'll soon grow bright
And shine with borrowed light,
And shine as he goes round.

HER EYES THE GLOW WORM LEND THEE

Her eyes the glow worm lend thee,
The shooting stars attend thee:
And the elves also, whose little eyes glow,
Like sparks of fire, befriend thee.

No will o' the wisp mis-light thee,
Nor snake, nor slow worm, bite thee;
But on thy way, not making a stay,
Since ghost there's none to affright thee.

Let not the dark encumber,
What though the moon doth slumber,
The stars of the night, will lend thee their light
Like tapers clear without number.

Then, Julia, let me woo thee,
Thus to come unto thee;
And when I shall meet thy silvery feet
My soul I'll pour into thee.

THE WITCH

A witch once lived near a hazel wood,
In a hut 'neath a hemlock tree,
That stood alone, forbidding and dark,
In sound of the groaning sea.

Now a hunter passed one day that way—
A callow youth was he;
He knocked at the door, and it opened wide,
And creaked in a minor key.

The witch was there, with a joysome glare;
She asked whom he wished to see.
He weakly smiled, but it only riled,
The fo fum fee of her e'e.
Hobble gobble gobble gobble.

The sun set red o'er the hazel wood;
In the hut 'neath the hemlock tree
The witch moaned o'er her ginger tea,
"Ah me, ah me, ah me."
A verdant youth was he.

THE MONKS AND THE PIRATES

The night o'er the sea is descending,
And shrouds the shore where heather grows;
With sunset glows, a bright star is blending;
Hark! the bell! all things will soon sink to repose.
Hark! rings the Angelus!
All things will soon sink to repose.

Pater noster qui es in coelis—

While softly the waves of the ocean
Murmur their vows unto the sandy shore—

Arises this song of devotion
Sung by the monks in their old cloister evermore:

Be thy holy name, God of love, eternal;
Ever hallowed, ever sung with delight;
Give us daily bread; our needs are diurnal;
Be thy will on earth done, as it is right;

Oh, God, our Father! So too in thy heavens
On the heights supernal.

God of mercy, pour pardon like a shower,
On thy children, who their weakness have shown;
As we pardon those, who harm us each hour;
Great God, save, we pray, when we cry and groan!
May all evil yield to thy mighty power.

To this pray'r relying on God, come flying
Loud across the seas, cries of hellish glee:
War and pillage! Sack the cloister!

Lug the casks and we will roister
On the vintage, pure and old.
Sword in hand, our gallant harriers,
As the midnight rings, will cry:

Forward to the fray! It is gay to rush asunder
With the ringing shout: We plunder! Each one will cry, sword in hand:
Forward to the fray! we plunder! War and pilage; Sack the cloister!
Rob the sisters, rob the brothers; Lug the casks and we will roister
Upon the vintage, pure and old, And pilage! To the fray we fly!

THE OMNIPOTENCE

Great is Jehovah the Lord,
For Heaven and Earth testify to His great pow'r;
'Tis heard in the fierce raging storm,
In the torrent's loud thundering roar;
Great is Jehovah the Lord, mighty is his pow'r;

SOLO

Great is Jehovah the Lord, mighty is his pow'r;
'Tis heard in the rustling of leaves in the forest,
Seen in the waving of golden fields,
In loveliest flowers' gaudy array,
'Tis seen in myriad stars that stud the heavens;

CHORUS

In myriad stars that stud the heavens,
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's loud roll
And flames in the lightning's brightly quivering flash.

SOLO AND CHORUS

Yet clearer thy throbbing heart to thee proclaims
Jehovah's power.

The Lord God Almighty,
Look thou praying to Heaven,
And hope for grace and for mercy.
Great is Jehovah the Lord!
