PART FIRST

I

- (a) To the Betrothed.....Gabriella Ferrari
Translated and arranged by Samuel Richard Gaines
- (b) Dawn.....Pearl G. Curran
Arranged by Carl Deis

THE MORNING CHORAL CLUB

- (a) Hasten thou! while in robes all gleaming,
Sweet bride, thou dost grace these folds of white,
And o'er thyself in radiance streaming,
Like snow on lily, soft delight.
Hasten thou! Hasten thou!
In silence we wait, by the door
Where thou ent'rest while the bells are ringing.
Dong! Dong! Dong! Dong!
Ne'er hast thou here entered before,
When grief was in thy heart upspringing.
Dong! Dong! Dong! Dong!
In silence we wait by the door.
Hasten thou! Hasten thou!
Sweet bride, like snow on lily, soft delight.
- (b) Awake, my child, the dawn is here,
And o'er the mountain, lights appear,
All gold and red and amber-hued.
The earth with life is fresh imbued.
Awake, awake, the day is near!
Awake, my child, the dawn is here!
Awake, awake, my soul!
Awake, my soul, thy dawn is here,
Thy day draws near!
For wondrous love has banished fear.
In rainbow tints my soul is bathed,
The glorious light it long has craved;
Awake, my soul, awake!
Awake, thy dawn is here!

- (a) Silver
- (b) Annie Laurie.....
- Victor Harris*
- Harmonization by Dudley Buck*

THE MORNING CHORAL CLUB

assisted by

MISS CLARA SCHLIEF

- (a) Slowly, silently, now the moon
Walks the night in her silver shoon;
This way, and that, she peers and sees
Silver fruit upon silver trees;
One by one the casements catch
Her beams beneath the silv'ry thatch;
Couched in his kennel, like a log;
With paws of silver, sleeps the dog;
From their shadowy cote the white breasts peep
Of doves in a silver-feather'd sleep;
A harvest mouse goes scamp'ring by,
With silver claws and silver eye;
And moveless fish in the water gleam,
By silver reeds in a silver stream.
Slowly, silently, now the moon
Walks the night in her silver shoon.

Walter de la Mare.

(b) (To be sung a cappella.)
Maxwellton's banks are bonnie,
Where early falls the dew,
And 'twas there that Annie Laurie
Gave me her promise true.
Gave me her promise true,
And ne'er forget will I,
And for bonnie Annie Laurie,
I'd lay me down and die.

Her brow is like the snowdrift,
Her neck is like the swan;
Her face, it is the fairest,
That e'er the sun shone on;
That e'er the sun shone on,
And dark blue is her eye,
And for bonnie Annie Laurie,
I'd lay me down and die.

Like dew on daisy lying,
Is the fall of her fairy feet,
And like winds in summer sighing,
Her voice is low and sweet.
She's all the world to me,
And ne'er forget will I,
That for bonnie Annie Laurie,
I'd lay me down and die.

PART SECOND

V

Fantasy on a Russian Folksong... Samuel Richard Gaines

THE MORNING CHORAL CLUB

assisted by

MRS. ESMERALDA BERRY MAYES AND MISS ETHEL KNOBELOCH

O the yearning and the pain
Of a love lived all in vain;
My tears unceasingly flow
For the hours of long ago,—
The hours that come not again!
Homeland was fair,
Would I were ever there,
With one I held
 So dear!
Oft, in my dreams,
Love, like a heaven, seems
 So near!

From the valleys and the hills
Love re-echoes as it thrills,
And the ecstasy and the fire
Of our happiness mounts up high'r,
Eyes unbending in their glow,
With a rapture overflow,
Yoh lo loh! Yoh lo loh!
Joyous music moves along
To the gladness of our song,
Yoh lo loh! Yoh lo loh!
And all sorrow is past and gone!

Mid the hurrying, scurrying,
Make an end of your worrying,
You will never be happy
Till the gleam is in the eye!
Dance and spin about, shout it out,
Earn your supper or go without,
Ah! Ah!

The world is wondrous fair,
So filled with beauty rare,
From out the stress of life
We rise victorious!
In songs so glorious!
Ah! Ah!

Adapted from the Russian of Pletscheyeff.

- (b) Tally-Ho*Franco Leoni*

THE MORNING CHORAL CLUB

- (b) There's a noise of galloping over the hill,
And the huntsman's horn rings merry and shrill.
See, here they come with a "View halloo!"
Hounds and horses and huntsmen too,
Galloping, galloping, galloping by.

The horses trample, the hounds they bay,
The riders' coats are scarlet and gay,
"Ho there, youngster!" the huntsmen cry,
"Say, have you seen the fox go by?"
Galloping, galloping, galloping by.

I look as stupid as I can be,
And never a word do they get from me,
Until in anger they shake the rein,
And start the rollicking hunt again,
Galloping, galloping, galloping by.

For would I be telling them? no, not I,
That I saw the fox go wearily by,
Wearily panting, worn and spent,
Would I be telling the way he went?
Galloping, galloping—No, not I!

C. P. Raydon.

The group of Spanish love songs which is number VI on the program, will be sung by Senor Mojica in the costume worn a century ago by the cavaliers of Spain.

This is the same as worn by his great-grandfather, Don Jose Mojica, one of the signers of the Mexican Declaration of Independence, and the silver trimmings are family heirlooms.

Some of these songs will be sung to a guitar accompaniment.
