Offertory Anthem: (From St. Paul).....Mendelssohn

And Paul came to the congregation, and preached freely the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Then spake the Holy Ghost, Set ye apart Barnabas and Paul, for the work whereunto I have called them.

And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

Now we are ambassadors in the Name of Christ, and God beseeches you by us.

How lovely are the messengers that preach us the gospel of peace!
To all the nations is gone forth the sound of their words, throughout all the lands their glad tidings.

Doxology .....Old Hundred

Processional: Hymn 329.....Jayne

The flowers on the altar today are in memory of
Mrs. J. E. Taussig

Offertory Anthem: "HOLY FATHER, CHEER OUR WAY".....Huhn

Holy Father, cheer our way. With Thy love's perpetual ray:
Grant us ev'ry closing day. Light at evening-time. Holy Spirit, be Thou nigh. When in mortal pains we lie. Grant us, as we come to die, Light at evening-time. Holy, blessed Trinity, Darkness is not dark to Thee: Those Thou keepest always see Light at evening-time.

Doxology .....Old Hundred

Recessional: Hymn 329.....Jayne

We welcome to our pulpit this morning the Rev. Arthur H. Armstrong, D. D., Secretary of the Church Federation of St. Louis.

The Rector's Confirmation Classes are as follows:

1. The Adults who meet in the Rectory on Sunday evenings at 8:00 p. m.
2. The Sunday-School Class which meets in the Parish House on Saturdays at 9:30 a. m.
3. A Special Class which meets in the Parish House on Tuesdays at 2:45 p. m.

A Series of Lectures on Medicine and Public Health are to be given under the auspices of the Washington University at the Medical School, Scott and Euclid Avenues, on Thursdays at 8:15 p. m., January 15th to 26th inclusive. These Lectures are free of charge. This congregation is cordially invited to attend.

The Rector desires to call special attention to the Diocesan Convention which is noted elsewhere in the Bulletin. Particularly does he request your attendance at the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary tomorrow, and the Mass Meeting at the Cathedral tomorrow night.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH SERVICE LEAGUE WILL BE ENABLED TO MAKE
OVER $1000.00

Thursday's Luncheon, of which Miss Elliott was hostess to sixteen ladies, is the start of a series of informal chain luncheons which the ladies of the League inaugurated. These luncheons provide a simple means of bringing before the entire Parish the aim of St. Peter's Church Service League. Their work is necessary, their efforts far reaching in quite a diversified field, charities largely, which St. Peter's Church is responsible for.

Our year's work has been systematized, we know what we must do, the work is interesting and we can accomplish our task even if only a few are helping; however, in that event, we will have no reserve stock of what we want to sell or surplus money in the Treasury at the end of the year.
