Offertory Anthem: "THE PALMS".....Faure

O'er all the way green palms and blossoms gay are strewn this day in festal preparation. Where Jesus comes to wipe our tears away, e'en now the throng to welcome Him prepare.

Join all and sing, His name declare, let every voice resound with acclamation. Hosanna, praise be the Lord! Bless Him Who cometh to bring us salvation.

His word goes forth, and people by its might once more regain freedom from degradation. Humanity doth give to each his right, while those in darkness find restored the light.

Sing and rejoice O blest Jerusalem, of all thy Sons sing the emancipation. Through boundless love, the Christ of Bethlehem, brings faith and hope to thee for evermore.

This afternoon at 4:30 p. m., in St. Peter's Church, will be the last of the series of Lenten Musical Hours. If you have attended these, you have attended something worth while, if not, you have missed something. This afternoon is your last opportunity. Last Sunday there were over 300 people in the Church. Those who attended were delighted with the varied character of the Program. Mr. Galloway and the Choir were ably assisted by Mr. H. F. Twitchell, Violoncello, Miss Mildred, Rhodes, Violin, and Mr. Herbert Fenton, Piano. This delightful combination of instruments and voices will long be remembered, and we hope it may soon be repeated.

The Rector's Confirmation Class meets tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Rectory. Those interested are invited to come.
* * *

A small lending library of religious books has been established in the Parish. These books may be found in the office and borrowed by any member of the Parish.

The Rector will be preaching in St. James' Church, Chicago, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. His absence from the Parish is not to interfere with the services appointed. The Reverend Mr. Marsden and the Reverend Mr. Putney will share in the responsibilities for the scheduled services during the Rector's absence.

Behold, thy King draws near the City gates! Go forth, Jerusalem, with shout and song. And, mov'd as by one thought the people rise, And hasten forth, a glad tumultuous throng. From out their peaceful village along the sunlit way, The Prince of Peace leads onward a pilgrim band this day. Then lo! with shout triumphant they hear the hillside ring, With shouts of crowds that hasten to greet their Prophet King. Hosanna! Lord, now as we meet Thee, Sing we Hosanna, Saviour we greet Thee, Lord and King. He rides as Israel's rulers once rode in Kingly state, The palm-leaves wave around Him, The people throng the gate. Rejoice, Oh! Golden City! Let loud Hosannas ring, While through thy streets He rideth, Thy Saviour and thy King. Hosanna!

II. Jesus of NazarethHamblen

Jesus of Nazareth, King! A humble Nazarene, Upon a cross of shame, Pierced and bruised, is suff'ring For those who scorned His name; Around His form is hov'ring Grim Death, with sable wing; Above His head a sign is writ Jesus of Nazareth, King! That title nailed above Him, In tongues that all might read, And scorn His bitter agony, Bare witness to His need; He little knew its meaning, Who wrote that mocking sign, For mortal hand hath never penned an epic so divine, Hail, King, Eternal, All praise to Thee, Who bore our sorrows On yonder tree; Own we Thy sceptre In willing thrall, Hail, King of all, Jesus of Naz'reth, King!

IV. God Who Madest Earth and Heaven.....Buck

God, that madest earth and heaven, Darkness and light; Who the day for toil hast given, For rest the night, May Thine angel-guards defend us, Slumber sweet Thy mercy send us, Holy dreams and hopes attend us, This livelong night. Guard us waking, guard us sleeping, And, when we die, May we in Thy mighty keeping, All peaceful lie. When the last dread call shall wake us, Do not Thou, our Lord, forsake us, But to reign in glory take us, With Thee on high. Amen.

St. Peter's Choir

V. CrucifixFaure

Come ye that weep; to Him bow down who sin forgiveth. All ye that suffer come to Him and taste His grace. Your trembling hearts to lay before, where He waits with smiling face. Come when the Hour of Death draws nigh, where He waits with smiling face. In Life's last hour on Him rely Who lives forever. Amen.
