And behold, there came three wise men from the East to Jerusalem, saying, "Where is He that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East, and are come to worship Him."

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered the chief priests and scribes together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea. For it is written by the prophet: And thou, Bethlehem in the land of Judah, art not the least among the princes of Judah; for out of thee shall come a governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men together, inquired of them what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the child; and when ye have found Him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship Him also. And when they had heard the king, they departed.

From the Eastern mountains
Pressing on they come,
Wise men in their wisdom
To His humble home.

Stirred by deep devotion,
Hasting from afar,
Ever journeying onward,
Guided by a star.

Light of light, that shineth
Ere the worlds began,
Draw Thou near, and lighten
Every heart of man.
