¶ This One Hundredth Concert is indeed a happy occasion for linking the present with the past. On the program, tonight, will appear a number of the Past and Retired Active Members who sang with the Club in the yesterdays.

¶ They are here for the sake of "Auld Lang Syne," and their presence emphasizes again the affectionate place the Club holds in the hearts of many music loving St. Louisans.

¶ If there is any past active member whose name does not appear in the following list, it is because the Director had no advance notice that he would participate in this jubilee concert.

Program

PART ONE

Hark! The Trumpet Calleth Dudley Buck

THE APOLLO CLUB

Hark! the trumpet calleth us to meet the foe,
Now to arms ye brave! Your valor show!
See, the hostile host in serried ranks advance,
From afar bright gleams each lance

For Fatherland, we strike the blow,
And in the dust shall be laid the foe
O then to arms! our country calls
We must obey.

O proudly our banner floating o'er us
Still raise in loud refrain the chorus
While we onward march to the beat of the drum
For victory is ours. We come, we come!

ROBIN ADAIR

What's this dull town to me?
Robin's not near
What was't I wished to see,
What wished to hear
Where's all the joy and mirth
Made this town a Heaven on earth
Ah! they're all fled with thee
Robin Adair.
What made th' Assembly shine?
Robin Adair
What made the ball so fine?
Robin was there!
What, when the play was o'er,
What made my heart so sore?
Ah! it was parting with
Robin Adair
But now thou art cold to me,
Robin Adair
Yet him I loved so well,
Still in my heart shall dwell
Ah! I can ne'er forget
Robin Adair

HO, JOLLY JENKIN

(The Friar's Song from Ivanhoe)

The wind blows cold across the moor
With driving rain and rending tree
It smites the pious hermit's door,
But not a jot cares he
For close he sits within and makes his merry din
The wind a roaring song may sing,
In crashing wood or frightened town
It whirls the mantle of a king
As 'twas a beggar's gown;
But caring not a jot,
We sing and drain the pot
With his "Ho, jolly Jenkin
I spy a knave in drinkin'
And trowl the brown bowl to me

Waken, Lords and Ladies Gay! - Samuel Richards Gaines

(Hunting Song)

Piano—Mr. Paul Friess

Waken, lords and ladies gay,
On the mountain dawns the day,
All the chase is here
Hawk and horse and spear
Hounds are in their couples yelling
Hawks are whistling, horns are knelling
Merrily mingle they, Waken lords and ladies gay

Waken lords and ladies gay,
The mist has left the mountain gray,
Springlets in the dawn are streaming,
Diamonds on the brake are gleaming,
And foresters have busy been
To track the buck in thickets green
Now we come to chant our lay,
Waken lords and ladies gay

Waken lords and ladies gay,
To the greenwood haste away
We can show you where he lies
Fleet of foot and tall of size
We can show the marks he made
When 'gainst oak his antlers fray'd
You shall see him brought to bay
Waken lords and ladies gay

Waken lords and ladies gay
Louder, louder chant the lay
Tell them mirth and glee,
Run as well as we;
Time, stern huntsman, who can baulk,
Staunch as hound, and fleet as hawk;
Think of this and rise with day,
Waken lords and ladies gay

IV

- (a) Vale Carissima F. Brueschweiler
(b) Prayer of Thanksgiving E. Kramser

THE APOLLO CLUB

Piano—Mr. Paul Friess

VALE CARISSIMA

On yonder lofty mountain
A thousand times I stand,
Look up to the shining heavens
And down on the smiling land
Vale Carissima

In rain and storm and tempest
I tarry beneath the tree
But closed remaineth yon portal
'Tis all but a vision to me.
Vale Carissima

High over yonder mountain
There riseth a rainbow gay,
But she from home hath departed
And wander'd far away
Vale Carissima

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing
He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing cease them from distressing
Sing praises to His name, He forgets not his own

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom divine,
So from the beginning the fight we were winning,
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, the glory be Thine!

We all do extol Thee, Thou Leader in battle,
And pray that Thou still our Defender wilt be,
Let Thy congregation escape tribulation
Thy name he ever prais'd O Lord, make us free.
