Offertory Anthem: "The Name Of The Lord"..... Hollins

What is His Name, and what is His Son's Name, if thou canst tell? The Lord God, merciful and gracious, long suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth. And they that know, His Name, will put their trust in Him. Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things. And blessed be his glorious Name forever, and let the whole earth be filled with His glory. His Name shall be continued as long as the sun, and men shall be bless'd in Him; all nations shall call Him blessed. Therefore we, in love adoring, This most blessed Name revere, Holy Jesus, Thee imploring, So to write it in us here; That hereafter, heavenward soaring, We may sing with Angels there. Amen.

Doxology ..... Old Hundred

Recessional: Hymn 115 ..... All Hallow's Closing Voluntary: Finale..... Widor

The flowers on the Altar today are in memory of Mrs. James E. Taussig

The women of THE CHURCH SERVICE LEAGUE are progressing splendidly with their plans for the Fall Bazaar. They hope to accomplish a great deal at the next three meetings after which time they will adjourn for the summer. Come and meet your friends here Tuesday on your way down town. LUNCHEON at one o'clock.

Once in a great while some one suggests to the Rector a favorite hymn. Such is the Processional this morning. Dr. Travers wishes the congregation to understand that he is very happy to have the favorite hymns of the various members of the Congregation sung at our Services. What hymn is YOUR favorite? Tell the Rector before you leave this morning and we will sing it next Sunday.

The CHOIR GUILD have all their plans laid for a lovely afternoon Bridge at the Rectory, which is on Thursday, the 24th at 2:30 o'clock. The money made from the Bridge will help to defray the expense for new Choir Cottas.
