Morning Prayer

Opening Voluntary: Andante Sostenuto (Gothic Symphony).....Widor Processional Hymn 460 .....Covenant
Venite .....Robinson
The Psalms appointed for the Third Sunday after Trinity are the 16th and 17th Psalms, found on pages 342 and 343 of the Prayer Book.
Te Deum .....Matthews
Jubilate .....Vogrich
Hymn 386 .....Square
Sermon .....The Rector
Offertory Anthem: "O Holy, Holy, Holy Lord".....Shelly

O Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, bright in Thy deeds and in Thy name, forever be Thy name adored, Thy glories let the world proclaim, O Jesus Lamb, once crucified! To take our load of sins away. Thine be the hymn that rolls its tide along the realms of upper day. O Holy Spirit from above, in streams of light and glory given, Thou source of ecstasy and love, Thy praises ring through earth and heaven. O God Triune to Thee we owe our every thought, our every song, and ever may Thy praises flow, from saint and seraph's burning tongue.

Doxology .....Old Hundred Recessional: Hymn 403 .....Materna
Closing Voluntary: Andantino Quasi Allegretto (Fifth Symphony)..Widor

The flowers on the Altar today are in memory of Jane Samuel.

Last week Mr. Galloway had the honor of giving the opening organ recital of the Eighth General Convention of the American Guild of Organists on a recently installed Four Manual Organ in the Auditorium in Memphis, Tenn. Members of the Guild from every State in the Union attended this Convention.

The Kindergarten Children made scrap books for the children of the San Juan Mission Hospital, Farmington, New Mexico this year and they have received the following letter from Miss Frances Gosele from San Juan Mission Hospital:

"The scrap books came and I have two little patients who are enjoying them now. One is a little girl not quite 3 years old, who was burned very badly, but is now much better and able to use her hands enough to turn the pages of the books. The other one is a child recovering from an appendicitus operation.

My little girls want to thank the Church children for making the books they enjoy so much."
