Offertory Anthem: "There is a Green Hill far away".....Gounod

There is a green hill far away. That we might go at last to Without a city wall, heaven,
Where the dear Lord was Saved by His precious blood.
crucified

Who died to save us all. There was no other good enough

We may not know, we cannot To pay the price of sin,
tell, He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

What pains He had to bear, Oh, dearly, dearly has He loved!
But we believe it was for us And we must love Him too,
He hung and suffered there. And trust in His redeeming

He died that we might be for- blood,
given, And try His works to do.
He died to make us good,

The Right Reverend Irving P. Johnson, D. D. Bishop of Colorado, will be the speaker of the Noonday and the Evening Services this week which are held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Bishop Johnson is one of the outstanding and able Bishops of our Church and is probably the most forceful. The services have held up during the Lenten Season. There are but two weeks remaining, therefore let us strive to attend this week in order that we may have a goodly congregation to greet Bishop Johnson.

Last Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Girls' Friendly Society Mr. Galloway and the Choir gave a Recital in the Church and Tea was served in the Parish House. It was eminently successful and the Choir and Mr. Galloway are to be congratulated. Our property was used for the 7:30 and 11:00 o'clock Services, Recital and Tea, the Confirmation Class and the Young People's Meeting last Sunday. The Rector was so happy to see the Church property so used and it is an illustration of what can go on in our plant when a group decide to get behind the work of the Church. In fact this may be said of all this Lenten season. The number of people in the Parish House working during the week, as well as being in Church, has been impressive. The Rector and Vestry are delighted to have the property serve the congregation.

It has been the custom of the Wardens and Vestry to seek a generous offering of the Congregation on Easter Day. This offering goes towards the support of the Church. It ought to represent the spirit of sacrifice and service, and it is in that spirit the Vestry invite a large and generous offering. The Rector is confident the Congregation will respond.
