SermonThe Rector
Hymn of Thanks—to be sung by the Choir and Congregation at the close of the Sermon:

Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices!
Who wondrous things hath done,
In Whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love;
And still is ours today.

Offertory Anthem: "Lovely Appear".....Gounod Lovely appear over the mountain the feet of them that preach, and bring good news of peace. Ye mountains, ye perpetual hills, bow ye down. Over the barren wastes shall flowers have possession. Dark shades of ancient days, full of hate and oppression, in the brightness of joy fade away, and are gone.
In this age, truly blest more than ages preceding, shall the corn never fail from the plentiful ground; under the shining sky shall the lambs gaily bound; void of fear, undisturbed, safely shall they be feeding. Then the timorous doves, wheresoever they fly, shall not fear any more the hawk's merciless cry.

Upon petition from members of the Choir Guild, the Rector last week appointed Mrs. Edward S. Travers to the chairmanship of the Choir Guild. We welcome her to this important position.

* * *

The Guilds announce Mrs. Thomas W. Taylor as Choir Mother for the month of December, and the following women in charge of the Altar for the month: Mrs. Ben Wood, Mrs. L. Sturgis Day and Mrs. R. A. Woolsey.

* * *

The Tuesday morning gym and dancing class has been discontinued until after the holidays, when it will be resumed under the direction of Mrs. Clement.

* * *

The regular Vestry meeting for the month will be held in the Parish House tomorrow night.

* * *

The following dates are open in 1931 for those wishing to give flowers for the Altar: February 1, April 5, May 31 and November 15. Please notify Mrs. Lewis Thomson if you will be responsible for any of these dates.

* * *

Mr. Charles Galloway and his capable choir are hard at work on special music for the Christmas Eve Midnight Service, which parishioners recall is one of the most impressive of the church year.
