

The Rubenstein Musicale will have their next meeting at the residence of Mrs. Simon Ray, when a very choice programme will be rendered. Miss Fleming has been invited to attend and to sing for them if the consent of the manager can be obtained.

Mr. Charles Galloway, the organist, paid a visit to Burlington, Io., last week and dedicated an organ in one of the leading churches there. He made a great impression and was immediately engaged for another recital to be given the latter part of June.
