

GALLOWAY ORGAN RECITAL.

The Proceeds Will Go to the Church of the Redeemer.

Charles Galloway will give an organ recital this evening at 8:30 o'clock at Shaare Emeth Temple. A collection will be taken up, the proceeds to go towards paying the debt on the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer.

Rabbi Samuel Sale and the Board of Trustees, through the President, Mr. Louis Straus, tendered the use of the new temple, corner Lindell and Vandeventer avenues for the occasion.

Mr. Galloway was organist at St. George's the time of the fire and was then known as the "boy organist." Since then he has spent four years in Paris, where he studied under Guilmant and presided over the organ at Holy Trinity, the American church of that city, and now holds a similar position at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in this city.

Following is the programme for the recital:

Toccata (from 5th Symphony). Charles Marie Widor
Song Without Words.....Alex. Guilmant
Fugue on Hall Columbia.....Dudley Buck
Bass Solo (selected).....Mr. Arthur M. Rhodes
First Sonata .....Alex. Guilmant

1. Introduction.

2. Pastorale.

3. Finale.

(a) Romance .....A. Chauvet

(b) Caprice .....Alex. Guilmant

(c) The Big G Minor.....Fugue

John Sebastian Bach.