

MASTERS OF PIPE ORGAN

WILL GIVE DAILY RECITALS.

Three St. Louis organists are named in the list of those to give recitals on the big organ at the World's Fair grounds during the Exposition, A. J. Epstein being the latest local organist selected. The others are Charles Galloway, World's Fair official organist; and Arthur Inghem.

The list has been completed by George W. Stewart, chief of the music bureau, who has not been able to decide upon the dates. Each will give two or three recitals, except Alexander Guilmant of Paris, France, who will give 36 concerts after Aug. 15. The list is:
