

---

Noted Organist to Play Here.

Charles Galloway, an organist of great renown, also organist for the World's Fair, will, under the auspices of the ladies of the Promenade street Methodist church, give an organ recital in this city. The exact date for this entertainment has not been given only that it will be sometime during February. This recital will be a rare treat and should not fail to be heard by many of Mexico's music-loving people. Notice as to date and price of admission will be announced later.

---