

MUSICIANS WILL ELECT OFFICERS.

Charles Galloway Takes Part in Tenth Concert of Music Teachers.

Officers will be elected and a place for holding the next convention will be chosen at a business meeting of the delegates to the Music Teachers' Association, now in session in Festival Hall at the World's Fair, at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The seventh concert of the convention, consisting of pianoforte solos by Albert Weinstein of New York and vocal selections by Mrs. Franklin Knight of Chicago, contralto, took place in the small hall at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. At 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon Thomas Whitney Surette, lecturer on music for the American University Extension Society of Columbia University, made an address in the small hall on the subject of "The New Musical Education."

A large audience was present in the auditorium of Festival Hall at 2:30 p. m. to hear the organ recital by Wilhelm Middleschute of Chicago, assisted by Mrs. Georgia Lee Cunningham of St. Louis.

At 4 o'clock the ninth concert took place in the large hall. Pianoforte solos were rendered by Mrs. Bernice Crumb Wyer of St. Louis and Miss Ida Simmons of Kansas City, Mo.

The tenth concert was given at 8 o'clock last night in Festival Hall, the following persons taking part: Charles Galloway, organist; Mrs. Grace W. Misick of Chicago, contralto; Henry P. Eames of Lincoln, Neb., piano; Mrs. Lulu Kunkel Burg of St. Louis, violin; Frank B. Webster of Chicago, barytone, and Mrs. David Krieger of St. Louis, piano.
