

Organ Recital at Church.

Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, an organ and vocal recital will be given at St. Peter's Church, Spring avenue and Lindell boulevard, by Charles Galloway, organist of the church, and Mrs. Benjamin J. Chase. A reception will be given Thursday evening to the members of the Association by the musical clubs of the city, at the Artists' Guild rooms.

The paper on church music, with especial reference to "The Choir," to be read by Charles Galloway Friday morning, is expected to create much discussion. Mr. Galloway's paper will severely criticise the character of music now in use in Sunday schools. He will charge that ragtime and dance music, accompanied by religious words, is a common thing in Sunday schools. "The Place of Music in Divine Worship" will be discussed by Rev. Jacob R. Meeker, pastor of the Compton Heights Congregational Church.

At 2 p. m. Friday a piano recital will be given by E. R. Kroeger, and at 4 p. m. a vocal recital by Gwilym Miles. The convention will close with a concert Friday evening.

---