
The following letter explains itself:
“For several years I have given organ and theory lessons to Mr. Charles Galloway, and I have taken the greatest interest in his studies, which have been excellent. He is now an artist of the first rank, destined to have a great and legitimate success. His execution on the organ is imposing and brilliant. I am very happy to give this testimonial of esteem and affection.

(Signed) Alex. Guilmant.”

To Mr. Charles Galloway, organist.
