

Novelty on Mme. Alda's Program.

A distinct novelty will be included on the opening program of the People's Concert course on Saturday night, October 29, when Mme. Frances Alda, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company and Gufia Casini, Russian cellist, appear in joint recital. The novelty is Cesar Franck's "Panis Angelicus," which requires in addition to the voice, a cello, a piano and an organ. Charles Galloway, organist at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, will play the organ on this occasion.
