

GLEE CLUB ADOPTS SERIOUS MUSIC FOR STUDY AND CONCERT

Number of Visiting Librarians Will Attend Charles Galloway's
Organ Recital Today.

The annual concert of the St. Louis University Glee Club and Orchestra will be given May 1 at the university auditorium. Both organizations have abandoned definitely the lighter type of college glee club material for more serious study. The result is a promising program consisting of music from Tchaikowski, Moskowski, and Thomas, and chorals by Grief, Coleridge-Taylor, Bullard and Cadman. The Glee Club retains many veterans of the World War who were members last season.
