

Features on KSD Programs Next Week

NEW YEAR'S week at KSD will be marked by two principal events. The first an organ recital by Charles Galloway, assisted by Oliver Smith, Chicago tenor, and John Kessler, pianist and composer. In this program, which is given in compliment to the National Music Teachers' Association, then in session in St. Louis, the Missouri Chapter, American Guild of Organists, will be the hosts. Edgar L. MacFadden is dean of the Missouri Chapter, and Charles Galloway, who will give the principal part of the program, is also a member and one of the leading American organists. John Kessler is a young St. Louisan, who has written a number of very much worth while things, both songs and piano numbers. He will accompany the singer in the program on Tuesday night, and all the songs will be his own compositions. Mr. Galloway's program is of a character such as only a master of the great instrument on which he plays would be able to present.

The second special feature of the week will be the New Year's Eve frolic at the Missouri and Grand Central Theaters. These programs will be broadcast alternately and will be an interesting piece of remote control broadcasting. The program will begin at about 11 o'clock and will continue until 1 o'clock or later. The radio audience will be given an opportunity not only to hear the program on the stages of the two theaters, but the fun and noise in the two audiences as well.

The Tuesday evening program will be presented by Rader's Orchestra at the Missouri Athletic Association and broadcast by KSD will have as its chief feature the "Serenade" of Titi, played as a duet for flute and cello by Messrs. Altmeier and Torgrove. The program will include excerpts from the opera "Rigoletto" and the light operas "Blossom Time" and "No No Nanette," Nevin's "Day in Venice" suite and a number of other interesting features.

New Year's day will be silent and on Friday night KSD will present in its studio a popular Illinois pianist, Leo T. Boylan, who will give a program of both popular and classical music. Another program on Friday will be a short song recital given by Miss Ethel Berryman, contralto.
