
CHORAL CLUBS WILL OFFER THE ORATORIO, 'KING OLAF'

"King Olaf," an oratorio based on a Scandinavian legend and set to music by Edward Elgar, will be presented at the Odeon Monday evening, May 6, by the Apollo and Morning Choral Clubs, supplemented by four soloists and an orchestra of thirty pieces. The soloists will be Mrs. Hector Pasmeczoglu and Katherine Cowan, soprani; Judson House, tenor and Bernard Ferguson, Charles Galloway is director.
