
Charles Galloway
Plays at Long Wedding

Charles Galloway, organist at St. Peter's Episcopal church, St. Louis, Missouri, arrived in Paducah today to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Long at the Hotel Irvin Cobb and to play the nuptial music at the marriage of Miss Mary Wilson Long and Mr. Raymond Dart Whitmore of "Raydamore," Larchmont Manor, New York, which will be beautifully solemnized Tuesday at high noon, at the Grace Episcopal church.

Mr. Galloway, one of the outstanding organists in this country, will give a thirty minute recital preceding the wedding service. He is a concert organist of exceptional technique, having scored a brilliant success. He gives his programs with delightful finish, repose and coloring, and the guests invited for the Long-Whitmore wedding tomorrow are promised a musical treat.
