

Whitmore-Long
Wedding Today
Brilliant Event.

Before a flower bedecked altar and under the soft glow of cathedral candles, Miss Mary Wilson Long, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Harriman Long of Paducah, Kentucky and Metropolis, Illinois, became the bride of Mr. Raymond Dart Whitmore of "Raydamore," Larchmont Manor, New York, at high noon today, in a ceremony which attracted society from five states and united two families of prominence and social position.

Grace Episcopal church with its picturesque interior, enhanced by a profusion of autumnal flowers of yellow, afforded a beautiful background for the nuptials. The chancel was banked with maize colored Chieftain chrysanthemums and Pernet roses interwoven with Woodwardia ferns, giving a tropical garden effect. Clusters of the flowers hung at every other pew down the aisle-way and ribbons marked the places for the immediate family, and out of town guests. Subdued lights back of the greenery gave an effect of sunlight.

The Reverend Custis Fletcher, rector of Grace Episcopal church, officiated, and preceding the entrance of the bridal party, while the guests assembled, Charles Galloway, organist of St. Peter's Episcopal church, St. Louis, Missouri, gave an exquisite organ recital as a prelude to the service. Mr. Galloway is one of the outstanding organists in the middle west.

Mr. Galloway's program was as follows:

Wedding March—Faulkes.

Scherzo—Rogers.

Even Song—Martin.

Elevation—Rousseau.

Allegretto Scherzando.

Tanglewood Tales—Staughton.

During the wedding service he played "Call Me Thine Own."
